

Curriculum Vitae

JANCEWICZ, Zbigniew

CURRENT POSITION

Name of company

Polskie Koleje Państwowe S.A.

Job position

Office Director

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

An experienced manager with ten years of experience at management positions. A person with rich experience in project management, with several years of experience in supervising the implementation of projects in the field of innovation and ICT. Currently manages the Research, Development and Digitalization Office in Polskie Koleje Państwowe S.A. where is responsible for coordinating and creating research and development directions, standardizing the methodology of leading such projects in the Capital Group and launching research and development initiatives and generating innovative solutions. He is responsible for contacts with scientific entities and building a research and development ecosystem based on universities, scientific institutes and entities operating in the railway sector.

Supervises the process of digitisation in PKP S.A. and cooperation with entities from PKP Capital Group in this area. Responsible for the implementation of the strategy for activities related to innovation and use of digital solutions to improve passenger and freight traffic and the company's operational efficiency. He supervises project managers implementing strategic projects in the area of digitisation and ICT and the use of new technologies.

EDUCATION AND TRAININGS:

Master of Engineering with specialization in Automation and Robotics

PRINCE2 Foundation Certificate in Project Management

EXTRAS:

[Additional information (for example publications) related to the position]

DYREKTOR BIURA

Zbigniew Jancewicz